

Oxford History Centre MS Wills Oxon 6/1/32

Inventory of Elizabeth Beard, Widow, of Sarsden, 1661

A true and perfect Inventory of the goodes and Chattells of Elizabeth Beard of Sarsdon widow who deceased the 28th day of July 1661 taken by Francis Gibbs of Donnington in the County of Gloucester, and William Beard of Sarsdon in the County of Oxford as followeth

Imprimis in the hall one table board , one chayre, and three ioyne stooles to the value of thirteene and fowre pence Item in the kichin, one furnace, fowre brasse potts, fowre brasse panns , three brasse postnetts, one ^{driping} pan, ~~sp~~ one spitte, one pich pott, one spice mortar, and three kettles three brasse candlestickes, and one brasse chaffing dish to the value of seven poundes

Item One paire of Andirons, one fire showle, one paire of ~ tongues, two paire of potthookes, and linkes, and one hanghill to the value of six shillings

Item tenne pewter dishes or platters, three smaller pewter dishes, three saucers, three pewter pottingers one pewter candlesticke, one pewter salt, one pewter flagon one pewter chamber pott, and five pewter spoones to the value of thirtie shillings

Item in the Chamber within the hall one Joyne bedsteed with the bed and the appertenances, one ioyne cubberd one Chayre, and one coffer to the value of three poundes and eighteen shillings

Item in the Chamber below the entrie, one bed with the appirtenances, one cubberd, two peares Cloath, and one warming pan to the value of five poundes, and tenn shillings

Item in the Chamber over the kichin one bedsteed with the appertinaces one bedd, one shelf and three sakes and one grist bagg to the value of one pound, and eight shillings

Item in the Camber over the Chamber within the hall one bedsteed, three coffers, one garner to the value of twentie shillinges

Item in the buttere fowre Drink barrels one Churne, five payles, two cowls, and one Dow cover, one salting trough, and one moulding board and other lumber to the value of one pound three shillings six pence

Item one (?)ting Cisterne and one malt mill to the value of one pound seven shillings and six pence

Item two rodder beastes, and fowre sheepe to the value of five pounds

Sum is 25^{li} 16^s 4^d

By us Francis Gibbs
William Beard

Exhibited at Oxford on 21st December 1661 by Thomas and William Beard, Sons and Executors

Transcribed by Churchill and Sarsden Probate Group 2015