

Oxfordshire History Centre, MS Wills Oxon 43/1/85Will of Alice Mollington, of Churchill, Widow 1591

In the name of god Ame[n] the vjth daye of the monethe of June the yere of oure lord god 1591 I Allice Mollington of Churchill in the countie of Oxon Widowe beinge sicke in bodie but of good and perfect reme[m]brance (laude and praise be to almightie god) doe make and ordayne this my p[re]sent testame[n]t contayninge herein my last Will in manner and forme followinge vidz first I com[m]e[n]d my soule to allmightie god my maker and redemer and my bodye to be buried in the churchyard of Churchill aforesaide It[em] I geve and bequeathe unto Elisabethe Perrin the best cowe (excepting the heriott) one payre of sheetes one store pigg one land of wheate my part of an acre of wheate halfe a quarter of barley, my best gowne and my best peaticote one peece of [?]ere clothe vj hens, a cowle, a paire of cobirons and a board clothe It[em] I geve and bequeathe unto Anne Harvie the best cowe but one all the bed clothes in the butterie the bigger ketle and a halfe gallon bottle one store pigg ix bushels of corne there halfe barley th[e] other halfe wheate all my clothes (exceptinge tho[se] before given) ij hens and a cocke and one towel It[em] I geve and bequeathe unto Francis Perrin one cowe one eawe and lambe one paire of sheetes one weaninge calve & one cofer It[em] I geve unto Evans Bastian a heifer It[em] I geve unto Thomas Hacker the best eawe ~~and~~ lambe a bushell of malt and a bushell of wheate for ij^s viij^d whiche I owe hym It[em] vj bushells of wheate and maslinge for xiiij^s iiiij^d whiche I owe ^{hym} th[er] one halfe to be paide wythe old corne and th[e] other halfe after harvest next It[em] I geve unto the saide Thomas and Jhon his brother ij loads of hay called flund leas one yeard medowe in Shutnam and all my corne in the kitchinge in the overfild to be parted equally betwixt them It[em] I geve unto Stephen Allifare the best eawe and lambe but one and xv^s whiche Richard Tainton dothe owe me It[em] I geve unto Jhon Hacker one eawe and lambe the best but two It[em] I geve unto Elisabethe Hacker one eawe and ^a lambe the bigger pott the best platter but one a payre of sheetes, a presse viij^s in the keepinge of her mother one skyle standinge in the saller and an other lesste skile, a boultinge witche a drinking barrell one cowell and a broche It[em] I geve and bequeathe unto Alice Perrin one eawe and lambe a fether bed ij payre of sheetes a blanket a bouster a twillie clothe a bedhealinge the lesser pott the best platter one sawser a salt one bedsteed standing in the butterye viij^s in money in the keping of Dorithye Hacker one drinkinge barrel on longe skile and a towell It[em] I geve unto Anne Winchcom one eawe whose lamb was the other lambe It[em] I geve unto Stephen Perrin one sheepe It[em] I geve unto Thomas Perrin one sheepe It[em] I geve unto Alice Harvie one sheepe & one platter It[em] I geve and bequeathe unto Thomas Mollington one table bord one forme, a benche ij pans and a cubbert It[em] I geve unto Katheren Hope one platter halfe a bushell of corne and if the corne Extend so farr one bushell more after Harvest. It[em] I geve unto Pyter Harvie ij platters a cofer and ij bordes It[em] I geve unto Jhon Spurrier one bushell of grist corne one bushell of barley and a bushell of pulse It[em] I geve unto Ellis Blunden one bushell of grist corne It[em] I geve unto Mawrice Rime a bushell of grist corne a bushell of barley and a bushell of poulse It[em] I geve unto Alice Biggerstaffe halfe a bushell of grist corne a bushell of barley and a bushell of poulse It[em] I geve unto Robert Pacie half a bushell of grist corne It[em] I geve unto mistres Edwards one bushell of wheate It[em] I geve unto Wyll[ia]m Mollinto[n] his children eche of them a bushell of corne It[em] I geve unto Thomas Ward his children eche of them a bushell of wheate It[em] I geve unto Dorythe Hacker a litle kete and ij hens It[em] I geve unto the poore vj^s viij^d to be distributed amongst them at the daye of my buriall The rest of all my goodes I geve and bequeathe unto Thomas Ward and Thomas Hacker whome I make my executors desiringe Richard Boxe and Clemence Tappin to be the sup[e]risors to see this my last will and testament fullye performed

Probate granted in Oxford by John Drewrie on 10th July 1591 to the executors named in the will

Transcribed by The Churchill and Sarsden Probate Group 2017